General Guidelines

Application

1. Any candidate who has passed 10+2 or equivalent examination may register in the online centralised portal, subject to certain restrictions in terms of the year of passing as set by the concerned Universities/Colleges/Higher Education Institutions.
2. A candidate can search for courses / programmes, colleges, and universities even before registering in the portal and access all relevant details, such as course / programme - wise eligibility criteria, number of seats (category-wise), formula for merit-index calculation, combination subjects offered, college profile, etc.
3. To register, candidates must provide a mobile number as their primary contact. This mobile number will be used for identification of the candidate and communication throughout the Centralised

Online Admission Process. Additionally, the candidate must also provide a valid e-mail address to receive different communications from the portal during the Centralised Online Admission process (UG). Candidates are advised not to change their mobile number during the entire process of online admission, as it may result in not receiving important communications from the portal from time to time.

4. As a first step in the application phase, a candidate will create a profile, providing the necessary personal details. Candidates must be cautious about all inputs provided, as this data will be used for eligibility criteria checking, merit indexing, and seat allotment by the system. There is no provision in the system for automatic validation or correction. If the candidature of any candidate is adversely affected due to the entry of wrong data by the candidate, the candidature of such candidates will be liable to be cancelled even after provisional admission.
5. Information to be provided by the candidates is given below:
 - Personal Information
 - Address
 - Additional Information
 - Results
 - Documents
6. Once the profile is successfully created and submitted, a candidate can check her or his eligibility with respect to any course / programme in any college in any district under any University of West Bengal under the purview of the portal under reference. Eligibility will depend on the course / programme and HEI, and the details of the eligibility criteria will be made available in the portal.
7. A candidate will be allowed to apply for a maximum of 25 courses / programmes (for which the candidate is eligible) across one or multiple institutions.
8. A candidate applying for multiple courses / programmes will be required to rank the courses / programmes in order of her or his preference. As the candidate is allowed to apply to multiple courses / programmes, marking of the preferences in the applications is to be done carefully, as the seat Page 3 of 7 allotment will be done on the basis of preferences exercised by the candidate. A candidate can change the preference list by adding or deleting courses / programmes or by re-ordering the list any number of times until the closure of the application window.
9. If a candidate does not indicate any preference, they will not be able to submit the application.
10. A candidate can change his or her profile information at any point in time before the application window closes. In the event of any change in marks, the candidate must prepare the preference list afresh.
11. Candidates must be very careful while applying. Candidates are advised to select the maximum possible number of courses / programmes in the same or different institutions (up to 25) and carefully rank their preferences. Candidates will be allotted their highest available preference (at that material point of time) based on merit rank and the availability of seats.
12. Candidates applying for 4-Yr Hons. / Hons. with research / 3-Yr Multidisciplinary Courses / Programmes must choose Major and Minor subject(s) during the application process (subject to confirmation of minor subject combination at the time of physical verification by the college/ HEI). 13. On closure of the application window (by 11:59 p.m. of the last date of submission of application form), profile information and applications with preference rank will be auto-submitted, and no further changes can be made. The candidate may anytime login to the portal and download the application form throughout the entire period of the centralised online admission process.
14. A Unique Application Number will be generated for each applicant once the application is submitted. This Unique Application Number will be used to identify the candidate throughout the entire admission process.
15. Candidates will find a FAQ segment in the portal, which may help them resolve their queries. If this is not resolved, they may refer to the 'contact us' section of the portal.
16. Admissions in Sports Quota Seats (if any) will not be considered in the UG Centralised Online Admission portal.

Phase : I (Admission Round and Upgrade Round)

17. After the closure of the application window, the Merit Index will be generated by the system for each course / programme in each institute (both the general merit list and the category-wise merit list), and all eligible candidates will be ranked as per their Merit Index (in descending order) in the respective lists.
18. The merit index will be calculated based on the ranking rules provided by the concerned Higher Education Institution (HEI) for each individual course / program.

19. A General Merit Rank (GMR) list will be generated based on the merit of candidates in all categories for each and every institution and Course / Programme.
20. A Category Merit Rank (CMR) list will also be generated for reserved category candidates for each and every institution and Course / Programme.
21. No separate rank will be generated for PwD or differently abled candidates. However, there will be horizontal reservations for PwD candidates in all categories where such applicants are available, as per the government rules now in force.
22. The seat allotment will be published on a scheduled date, duly notified from time to time.
23. Allotments will be given based on the information provided by the candidates. On scrutiny, if it is found at any stage that the applicant is not eligible for the allotment because of some discrepancy in the data provided by the candidate or due to the unavailability of supporting document(s), the corresponding allotment or provisional admission shall be treated as cancelled.
24. candidate will login to check the allotment. The allotment status will show the institute and course / programme in which the candidate has been allotted a seat, if any. The candidate will be able to see the corresponding GMR and CMR for all the applications in the candidate's preference list.
25. Seat allotment will be done HEI / Course / Programme-wise according to merit and preference.
 - UR seats will be allotted to candidates irrespective of their social category.
 - PwD candidates will be placed against their respective seats.
 - Candidates other than PwD will be placed against UR seats not reserved for PwD.
 - The same procedure will be followed for the reserved category seats.
 - If a UR-PwD candidate is allotted a UR-PwD seat, the same candidate will not be considered for any other UR seat. The same rule applies for the other reserved categories as well; for example, SC-PwD, ST-PwD, and OBC A & B – PwD candidates allotted seats in these categories will not be allotted any other seat in the SC, ST, or OBC A and B categories.
 - Seats for reserved category will be allotted based on their social category following existing rules of reservation of seats for admission to Higher Education Institutions, Government of West Bengal (07-Edn(U)/1U-89/13 dated 02nd January, 2014). Seats for EWS will be allotted in terms of government order bearing no 339-Edn(CS)/OM-74L/2023 dated 26th May, 2023 read with 628-Edn(CS)/OM-74L/2023 dated 18th September, 2023 subject to the submission of valid EWS certificate issued by competent authority in terms of government order number 334-BCW/MR-52-2028 dated 27-02-2024.
 - If a reserved category candidate belonging to SC, ST, OBC-A or OBC-B is allotted a UR seat by merit, the same candidate may also be allotted the respective reserved category seat, if eligible. In that case, the same person may be allotted 02 (two) seats for the same course / programme / HEI combination. In such cases, the candidate will have to opt for one (either UR or Reserved Category) seat at the time of taking provisional admission.
 - While allotting a seat to a candidate, the following rules will be applicable:
 - A candidate will be allotted the highest available ranked seat as indicated in the preference list submitted by the candidate. This allotment will be made based on the candidate's rank in the merit index list and seat availability for the particular course / programme.
 - Once allotted a seat, all choices of that candidate for the same rank and below in the preference list will not be considered for seat allotment in future. This is to ensure that candidates who are allotted seats will be considered for upgrading only in the next round by selecting upgrade option at the time of admission in the allotted seat. If a candidate is allotted a seat against the first preference, the candidate will not be considered in later upgrade rounds (if any).
 - If there is a tie between candidates with the same Merit Index for seat of a particular course / programme (category-wise), the tie-breaking rule as prescribed by the concerned HEI (College / University) will be used to break the tie.
A candidate may not be allotted any seat if the candidate's rank in the merit list is lower than the last candidate allotted in the respective course / programme for the HEI applied in the candidate's respective categories.
 - After seat allotment to all possible candidates, the portal will be opened for a defined timeline for the candidates to take provisional admission to the seats allotted to them, if any
 - The candidates have to proceed with taking admission into the allotted seats. The candidates who will not take admission in the allotted seats in the respective round will not be considered for any further upgrading. The candidature of such a candidate will be irrevocably cancelled.
 - A candidate who has taken admission to the allotted seat in the respective round may opt for upgradation, if not allotted in the top-most preference given by the candidate.
 - For any future allotment in the upgrade round, the candidates who were allotted a seat and all choices of the same rank and below in the preference list will not be considered.

- For provisional admission in the allotted seat, the candidate must confirm and accept the admission fees and pay the same through the online payment mode as available in the system.
- Admission fees will be according to the fee structure as prescribed by the respective HEIs. The fees may vary due to the selection of a combination of subjects.
- On successful payment, the candidate will be considered to have been provisionally admitted, and the candidate will be provided with a downloadable provisional admission slip.
